 Call to Worship – Lighting of the Christ Candle JOY

Leader: In the darkest times we cannot see to make our way. Our eyes adjust, but still everything is shadowed and grey. We reach out, desperate for comfort, for balance, for the familiar, for hope.

People: In the darkest times, even a faltering light can be just enough: the flame flickers, twinkles, dances—and it is dazzling! For in its light, we see light: God in our midst.

Candle is Lit.....Kennedy Family

Leader: However impossible it seems, here we are, the servants of the Lord, both perplexed and joyful — and blessed is the one who trusts that with God all things are possible.

People: Come, O come, Emmanuel, God with us, and we will rejoice.

Prayer of Confession

Lord Christ, as we look forward to celebrating your first coming at Christmas, we are often distracted by the festivities around us. We get busy with the stress and joy of family gatherings. Forgive us for not preparing your way in the world; forgive us for adding to the distraction of others. As we look forward to your second coming, we are surrounded by the duties and expectations of everyday life. Forgive us for being too scared or overwhelmed to prepare the way for you. Help us, in this Advent season, to live in the joy of your first coming and the hope of your second coming so that those around us may see the difference your coming makes. Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
