Prayer of Confession

Father God, we affirm that the Biblical gospel, the good news of your salvation, is your enduring message to the world. This good news must be boldly proclaimed, wherever possible... because it is God's power for salvation and we are under obligation to make it known. Yet, we confess that we trivialize the gospel at times. We repent that the narrowness of our concerns and vision has often kept us from proclaiming the lordship of Jesus Christ over all of life. We repent of all self-confident attempts to either evangelize in our own strength or to dictate to the Holy Spirit. We rejoice that you, the living God, did not abandon us to our lostness and despair but came after us in Jesus Christ to rescue and remake us. Father, thank you for forgiving and transforming us in the power of your Spirit. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.
