Prayer of Confession*Brian Bark*

Lord, we come to you in this season of blessings where you have brought us your Son as our Savior.

Yet we magnify our life challenges and everyday problems without recognizing that you are with us every step of the way. We seek out our own desires rather than living our lives wholeheartedly following your ways.

As we receive the many blessings of this Christmas season remind us to recognize and reach out to those that have unmet needs.

Lord as we go into the next year put it upon our hearts to glorify you and bring others to your Kingdom as you offer us the undeserved grace that has been promised. Amen.
